

Taking Control of the Long-Term Work Injury

Providing practical and effective solutions to a challenging issue

Topics Covered

- What are the biggest challenges in effectively controlling the long term work injury?
- What are the elegant solutions that leading industry professionals are using to control the long term injury?
- What are the legal considerations for you and your business in controlling the long term work injury?

The seminar also offers the opportunity for open discussion with industry peers about what is working for them.

Venue

The Epping Club
45-47 Rawson Street
EPPING NSW 2121
(On-site parking available)

Date and Time

Tuesday, 31st May 2011
9:30am—12:30pm

Cost

$295.00 (plus GST) per participant
25% discount for 4 or more attendees

Speakers

Chris Harrington is founder and director of Inigma Group, an Australian company with an impressive track record of helping clients take control of their Workers Compensation claims and produce very significant savings. Chris brings a unique and effective approach to high level workers compensation solutions.

Thomas Aune is the founder and director of Suremploy. His company has provided expert musculo-skeletal and functional assessments for several thousand workers in a large range of manual handling industries. With over 25 years of experience in physiotherapy and over 10 years in occupational health, Thomas has a thorough knowledge of the issues around taking control of the long term work injury.

Sunil Lal is a managing partner at LBR Legal, the first multi-partner law firm focusing exclusively on workplace disputes, insurance law and risk management. He brings an exceptional level of current legal expertise to the topic of taking control of the long term work injury.

For bookings or enquiries phone
02 9876 5005
or email admin@suremploy.com.au

